

ANNUAL RECOGNITION

NOMINATION FORM

NONPROFIT FOUNDERS, LIFETIME ACHIEVERS,
INSPIRING VOLUNTEERS & NEXT GENERATION

The Long Island Volunteer Hall of Fame Initiative, a coalition of organizations, invites you to participate in its Annual Volunteer Hall of Fame Program honoring outstanding individuals who by their foresight, leadership and dedication to volunteer causes, founded not-for-profit organizations on Long Island. A Lifetime Achievement Award in Volunteerism, Inspirational Service Award, and Next Generation Awards for youth will also be presented. Help us by nominating worthy individuals to be permanently honored in the Volunteer Hall of Fame.

Eligibility for Inspirational Service Award

- The Inspirational Service Award in Volunteerism will be awarded to a unique Long Islander who has made a significant impact on her/his community through a commitment to community service.
- Nominee must have been a resident of Nassau or Suffolk County while serving in a volunteer capacity.
- A person may be nominated multiple times; however, Hall of Fame status can be attained only once.
- The honor may be awarded posthumously.

Selection Process

- Members of the Association of Professional Volunteer Administrators (APVA) serve on the panel of judges that select the award winner.
- All decisions are final.
- The inductee will be notified in December; the formal induction ceremony is held in February.
- Winners must sign a release agreeing to their photos, bios and information about any organizations they have volunteered for being published in our Hall of Fame program, promotional materials and display. Media may also be notified.

Award Description

This award will be bestowed upon a unique individual who regardless of his/her own personal challenges in life has been dedicated to giving back to his/her community. Volunteering may not always have been easy, but this individual went out of his/her way to support his/her community and causes s/he felt were important. This individual has inspired others with his/her life and serves as a role model for volunteerism.
