

ANNUAL RECOGNITION

NOMINATION FORM

NONPROFIT FOUNDERS, LIFETIME ACHIEVERS,
INSPIRING VOLUNTEERS & NEXT GENERATION

The Long Island Volunteer Hall of Fame Initiative, a coalition of organizations, invites you to participate in its Annual Volunteer Hall of Fame Program honoring outstanding individuals who by their foresight, leadership and dedication to volunteer causes, founded not-for-profit organizations on Long Island. A Lifetime Achievement Award in Volunteerism, Inspirational Service Award, and Next Generation Awards for youth will also be presented. Help us by nominating worthy individuals to be permanently honored in the Volunteer Hall of Fame.

Eligibility for Lifetime Achievement Award

- The Lifetime Achievement Award in Volunteerism will be awarded to a unique Long Islander who has made a significant impact on the lives of others through a lifetime commitment to community service.
- Nominee must have been a resident of Nassau or Suffolk County while serving in a volunteer capacity.
- A person may be nominated multiple times; however, Hall of Fame status can be attained only once.
- The honor may be awarded posthumously.
- Nominee must have a minimum of 15 years worth of community service (not necessarily at one organization) to qualify for Lifetime Achievement.

Selection Process

- Members of the Association of Professional Volunteer Administrators (APVA) serve on the panel of judges that select the Lifetime Achievers.
- All decisions are final.
- The inductee will be notified in December; the formal induction ceremony is held in February.
- Winners must sign a release agreeing to their photos, bios and information about any organizations they have volunteered for being published in our Hall of Fame program, promotional materials and display. Media may also be notified.

Criteria considered for Lifetime Achievement

- Length of volunteer service (paid work will not be considered).
- Scope of volunteer activity.
- Needs addressed by the nominee's volunteer service.
- Community resources and collaborations developed.
- Creative or innovative approaches to solving a problem.
- Any unusual challenges overcome by the nominee in order to volunteer.
- The impact the nominee's volunteer service had on the organization and the community.
